

CNTA

Citizens for Nuclear Technology Awareness

$1000 Scholarship High School Essay Contest for 2010

Choose from the following 3 topics:

- Compare and Contrast Nuclear Power Production in Nations around the Globe
- Medical Isotope Production, Distribution, and Use
- The Value of Nuclear Technologies & Radioisotopes to the World's Food Supply

The goal of the CNTA High School Essay Contest is to increase awareness of nuclear technology and its effects on society among high school students in the local area.

Criteria:

- 1000 – 1500 Word Essay
- Current high school junior or senior
- Open to any student that attends school in Aiken, Richmond, or Columbia Counties in SC & GA
- Open to family of a CNTA member regardless of school location
- One submittal per contestant
- No Faxes accepted
- Electronic submittals preferred
- Proper citation of sources is required on all submissions

Award:

- $1000 Student Scholarship for winning essay
- $500 award for winner's school

Essay Deadline February 28, 2010

Email to: cnta@bellsouth.net or

Mail to: CNTA
Attention: Dr. Clint Wolfe
1204 Whiskey Road
Aiken, South Carolina 29803

Contacts: Dr. Clint Wolfe
cnta@bellsouth.net
(803) 649-3456

William Wabbersen
william.wabbersen@srs.gov
(803) 208-1444

Sponsored by:
Citizens for Nuclear Technology Awareness
1204 Whiskey Road
Aiken, South Carolina 29803